

JAM THE GYM! WITH THE YSU BASKETBALL PEP BAND!

December 7th, 2024

Registration: <https://ysu.edu/dana-school-music/ysu-marching-pride/jam-the-gym-2024>

| Dec 7 |                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11:00am      | Arrive at YSU (Parking instructions will be emailed prior to the event.) Check-in at Stambaugh Stadium Gyms - receive pep band shirts and copies of music. |
| 11:30am      | Rehearsal                                                                                                                                                  |
| 12:30pm      | Lunch provided to all participants                                                                                                                         |
| 1:30pm       | YSU Pep Band begins pre-game performance                                                                                                                   |
| 1:50pm       | Mass Pep Band performs two selections with YSU Pep Band                                                                                                    |
| 2:00pm       | YSU Pep Band and Mass Pep Band performs National Anthem (TBA)                                                                                              |
| Time-Out     | YSU Fight Song with the YSU Pep Band (media timeout during first half)                                                                                     |
| 3:00pm       | Halftime performance with the YSU Pep Band including the YSU Fight Song!                                                                                   |
| Time-Out     | Repeat selection with mass pep band (media timeout during second half)                                                                                     |
| 4:00pm       | Game ends. Return to Stadium to get coats/cases, dismissal.                                                                                                |

DETAILS

- Directors are welcome to attend, please feel free to bring your instrument and join us for the day!
- Open to ALL high school students, and music educators of participating schools.
- Dress code requires black pants (solid black, no stripes) these can be dress pants or warm-up/gym style pants.
- Students who complete the registration form will receive instructions and links to PDF copies of music by email in the weeks prior to Jam the Gym
- YSU Athletics will contact students and participating schools who request discounted tickets for friends and family.
- The registration form can be found at the link above or using this QR Code:
- Any questions can be directed to bands@ysu.edu

