Findings for Taskstream Data-Ethics

Summary of Findings:

The Key Performance Indicator in Taskstream measuring the outcome data for ethics is scored in COUN 6961: Orientation and Ethics for School Counseling, COUN 6920: Orientation and Ethics for Clinical Counseling (taken by clinical and addictions students), and COUN 7026: Orientation and Functions of Student Affairs (taken by college counseling and student affairs students). The measures are scored on a scale of 1-4:

Unsatisfactory: Candidate presents minimal knowledge of ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling.

Satisfactory: Candidate presents general knowledge of ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling.

Competent: Candidate presents a comprehensive amount of knowledge of ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling.

Exemplary: Candidate exceeds all expectations with their knowledge of ethical standards of professional counseling organizations and credentialing bodies, and applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling.

Average results from the three ethics courses in fall 2021 (COUN 6961, COUN 6920, and COUN 7026) and spring 2022 (COUN 6920) are indicated below:

Action details:

In reviewing the KPI data regarding the ethics courses, the following steps will be taken:

COUN 6961- Continue curriculum expectations with the integration of a midterm and final exam highlighting the American Counseling Association, American School Counseling Association, and their respective ethical guidelines/standards.

COUN 6920-Results from Fall 2021 COUN 6920 do not report the KPI standard because the standard was not added until the spring 2022 semester for this course. Going forward, the program will ensure that the standard is measured on Taskstream.

COUN 7026- Ensure addition of 2.F.1.i: standard to Taskstream rubric and syllabus
