2022 Noel Levitz Snapshot Series: Classroom Experience

In the spring of 2022, the Institute for Teaching & Learning fielded the Noel Levitz Satisfaction survey to all YSU students. Two different survey versions were used as a part of the survey administration. Many of the same items occur on both surveys, and this document focuses on both survey versions, but breaks up results by undergraduate/graduate status and age group. The surveys had a response rate of 17%.
