RESOLUTION TO MODIFY
EMPLOYMENT OF STUDENTS UNDER THE FEDERAL WORK-STUDY
PROGRAM POLICY 3356-9-03.2

WHEREAS, University Policies are being reviewed and reconceptualized on an ongoing basis; and

WHEREAS, this process can result in the modification of existing policies, the creation of new policies, or the deletion of policies no longer needed; and

WHEREAS, action is required by the Board of Trustees prior to replacing and/or implementing modified or newly created policies, or to rescind existing policies.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of Youngstown State University does hereby approve the modification of the University Policy stated above and attached hereto.

Board of Trustees Meeting
September 20, 2023
YR 2024-
Policy Statement. Youngstown State University (University) participates in the federal work-study program in order to provide eligible students with part-time employment to help meet academic costs and provide work experience.

Purpose. To provide information and guidance to University students, staff, and faculty regarding the United States department of education federal work-study (FWS) program.

Scope. This policy applies to undergraduate and graduate students seeking employment through the FWS program.

For non-FWS student employment, refer to rule 3356-9-03 of the Administrative Code, "Appointment of graduate assistants, graduate research assistants, graduate assistant interns, and teaching assistants." (See corresponding University policies 3356-9-03, "Employment of students," and 3356-9-03.1, "Appointment of graduate assistant graduate research assistants, graduate assistant interns, and teaching assistants.")

Parameters.

1. While the president has overall responsibility for the management of the University, the responsibility for hiring student employees is delegated to the provost, vice presidents, and divisional executive officers, or designee.

2. The office of financial aid and scholarships is responsible for administering and awarding federal work-study funds, university compliance with FWS regulations, and determination of student eligibility in accordance with federal regulations and university policy. University policy requires students to be reviewed for FWS eligibility on a first come, first-served basis.

3. In addition to on-campus employment, FWS funds may also be used for community service opportunities such as "America Reads" and other community-based programs.

4. Students receiving FWS funds are not eligible for fringe benefits, including paid vacation and sick time.

5. Federal work-study payments are administered by the office of payroll.

6. Federal work-study awards are cancelled or reduced when students default on federal loans, become over-awarded due to changes in aid eligibility, or do not maintain satisfactory academic progress.

Procedures.

1. The office of financial aid and scholarships applies annually for FWS funding by submitting the appropriate forms and paperwork to the United States department of education.

2. In order to be considered for FWS funds, students must annually complete the "Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)" form after October first for the following aid year. Students are encouraged to answer yes to the FAFSA question asking if they are interested in the federal work-study program.

3. In order to prevent student over-awards and to timely notify the employing department when work-study funding has been exhausted, student year-to-date FWS earnings are monitored by the office of financial aid and scholarships.

4. Community service is tracked to monitor compliance with United States department of education requirements.
(5) All federal work-study earnings are reconciled between the office of financial aid and scholarships and the controller's office of general accounting.

(6) The office of financial aid and scholarships annually compiles and reports required federal work-study information to the United States department of education.

(7) Information regarding financial assistance is available on the university's office of financial aid and scholarships and federal work-study webpages. See also the federal-student-aid-website studentaid.gov for more information.
RESOLUTION TO MODIFY
FACULTY WORKLOAD POLICY 3356-10-20

WHEREAS, University Policies are being reviewed and reconceptualized on an ongoing basis; and

WHEREAS, this process can result in the modification of existing policies, the creation of new policies, or the deletion of policies no longer needed; and

WHEREAS, action is required by the Board of Trustees prior to replacing and/or implementing modified or newly created policies, or to rescind existing policies.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of Youngstown State University does hereby approve the modification of the University Policy stated above and attached hereto.

Board of Trustees Meeting
September 20, 2023
YR 2024-
3356-10-20 Faculty workload.

Policy statement. Upon accepting an appointment to the faculty of Youngstown State University, a tenured/tenured-track faculty member assumes responsibilities for teaching, scholarship, and service. Participation in each of these three activities is a component of a tenured/tenured-track faculty member’s total workload.

Senior lecturers and lecturers have primary responsibility in the area of teaching. Principal lecturers assume responsibilities for teaching and service.

To ensure the quality of teaching, scholarship, and service relative to the academic mission of the university, college, and department, all members of the faculty are expected to teach their classes competently, engage in assessment and advising activities, keep current in their field of specialization, actively engage in scholarly activities related to their field, be an available resource to their students, be active within the community, and participate conscientiously on committees.

Purpose. To establish parameters and procedures for the determination and assignment of faculty workload hours which are in compliance with section 3345.45 of the Revised Code and consistent with the standards developed by the Board of Regents, Ohio Department of Higher Education.

Parameters.

1. Full-time load is twenty-four workload hours (whs) per academic year for tenured/tenured-track faculty. Workload in excess of fifteen whs per semester or twenty-four whs per academic year (excluding summer session) will be eligible for overload compensation.

2. Full-time load is thirty whs per academic year for principal lecturers, senior lecturers, and lecturers. Workload in excess of seventeen whs per semester or thirty whs per academic year (excluding summer session) will be eligible for overload compensation.

3. One workload hour will be assigned for one credit hour of instruction in a lecture, practicum, discussion, recitation, and seminar course. Workload may vary in cases where courses are identified as lecture-research. All faculty are expected to teach a minimum of one regularly scheduled course per semester, unless approved for a semester leave.

4. For courses other than those identified in lecture-research (D(3) above, including independent study, variable credit hour classes, clinical placements, student teaching, internships, laboratories, thesis and dissertation, and similar courses, workload shall be calculated on the basis of student credit hours (sh) and headcount, using the formula determined by the dean and approved by the provost/vice president for academic affairs. If completed during the summer term, workload is provided for thesis, non-thesis, or dissertation projects during summer term paid per the OA/A Workload Policy at the established overload rate.

5. The variability of workload distribution related to teaching, research, and service among colleges, departments, and individuals is recognized. The following procedures are designed to assist departments in as they develop their workload recommendations for non-instructional reassigned time.

(a) Those the development of workload recommendations for non-instructional reassigned time shall be based on the approved written mission, goals, and objectives of the department consistent with the mission, vision, and goals of the university.

(b) Work deemed meaningful and impactful to the mission and vision of the university by the dean and chair may be considered for workload non-instructional assignment at the recommendation of the chair and subject to the written approval of the dean and provost. Upon completion of the assignment, the faculty member shall provide a report to the chair, who along with the dean will review the outcomes of the assignment. The chair will maintain written records of the proposal, its outcomes, and the review within department files. In evaluating future requests for non-teaching non-instructional non-instructional duties, the provost, dean, and chair shall take into consideration the nature of the proposed work and any previous reports of similar projects.

(E) Procedures:

(1) Academic department chairs, in consultation with department faculty, shall provide to the dean a recommended plan, called the "workload plan", for detailing individual faculty workload to be assigned for the upcoming academic year. Anticipated teaching, scholarship, and service activities within the department shall be included. This shall be completed by May 1 preceding the upcoming academic year.

(2) The dean will review and approve in writing the chairperson's recommended workload plan for individual faculty workload. Prior to approval, the dean may return proposed workload plans for modification and/or clarification. Once approved, the dean will forward departmental workload recommendations to the office of academic affairs. The provost may return departmental recommendations to the dean for modification and/or clarification.

(3) In cases where the approved plan changes and results in overload and/or changes to non-instructional reassigned duties, a revised plan must be submitted for approval to the dean and forwarded to the office of academic affairs.

(4) Faculty members are required to submit the final workload report, called the "workload report", detailing actual teaching, scholarship, and service activities for the current academic year, by the end of the relevant spring semester. The final report is reviewed and approved by the chair and dean prior to being forwarded to the office of academic affairs.

(F) Administrative right. The determination, assignment, and approval of workload hours for teaching, scholarship, and service are reserved administrative rights.
RESOLUTION TO AUTHORIZE
CONFERRAL OF HONORARY DEGREE

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of Youngstown State University does hereby authorize the conferral of a Doctor of Music, honoris causa, upon Bob DiPiero, with all the rights and privileges attendant thereto.

Summary Report for Board of Trustees on the Academic Senate
Fall 2023

MI Pallante, Chairperson of Academic Senate

This Fall of 2023, Senate hopes to accomplish two major tasks:

- Development and approval of New General Education Model
  - Explanation and purpose of General Education—think of it as Essential Education
  - Core (8 Courses) plus 4
  - Discussion of 2nd writing course “Writing in the Disciplines”
  - How to use the remaining courses to create a unique and significant Experience for students at YSU

- Working with SGA, develop and receive approval for a reciprocal document outlining student/administrative responsibilities for student progress
  - SGA requested this at conclusion of Spring 2023
  - Information already exists, but needs compiled into single document
  - Probably in the form of a timeline

Other matters on the agenda:

- Working with Ohio Faculty Council & Ohio Faculty Senate (2yr institutions) to share information across institutions concerning mental health issues on the campuses of Ohio’s state colleges and universities
  - Pallante and Cryshanna Jackson Leftwich attending summit on September 22, 2023

- Ongoing Policy review

- Senate as a vehicle to convey information to the larger faculty
  - Discussion of Watermark software as mechanism for faculty reporting
  - Switch to BlackBoard Ultra and cease access to Original BlackBoard by Fall 2024
