

TUNNEL OF OPPRESSION

Widening the View: Do you see what I see?

This presentation will:

- Describe how oppression and trauma can impact an individual's life
- Challenge attendees to reflect on their own biases
- Provide strategies for understanding the experiences of others
- Provide tools to increase cross-cultural communication

CARMELLA HILL, M.ED., P.C.C-S

- 20+ years in mental health services
- Founder of Empower to HOPE Services, LLC
- Director of Behavioral Health at Coleman Health Services
- Adjunct faculty member at Cleveland State University
- Former full-time and adjunct faculty member at Youngstown State University

Monday, November 1st, 3p-4p
Chestnut Room, Kilcawley

Youngstown State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, disability, age, religion or veteran/military status in its programs or activities. Please visit ysu.edu/accessibility for contact information for persons designated to handle questions about this policy.

