5. Recipient shall exercise the same degree of care to protect Discloser's Confidential Information that it exercises to protect its own Confidential Information and in any event such care shall at least be reasonable care to prevent disclosure of Discloser's Confidential Information to any third party. Internal dissemination of Discloser's Confidential Information by the Recipient shall be limited to those employees, agents, representatives, consultants, or affiliates whose duties justify the need to know such information and then only on the basis of a clear understanding by these individuals of their obligation (a) to maintain the confidential status of such information and (b) to restrict the use of such information solely to the use specified in Paragraph 6 of this Agreement.
6. Recipient shall not use the Confidential Information disclosed by the Discloser under this Agreement, except for the following purposes: to evaluate mutual business and research activities. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting or implying any right or license to any party to use another party's intellectual property or to use any Confidential Information disclosed under this Agreement for any other purpose.
7. Recipient shall be under no obligation with respect to any information:
  - a) Which is, at the time of disclosure, available to the general public;
  - b) Which becomes, at a later date, available to the general public through no fault of Recipient and then only after the later date;
  - c) Which Recipient can demonstrate (i) was in its possession before receipt of the information from Discloser or (ii) was developed independently by Recipient without reference to the Confidential Information provided by Discloser;
  - d) Which is disclosed to Recipient without restriction on disclosure by a third party who has the lawful right to disclose such information, or;
  - e) Which is required to be disclosed to comply with applicable laws or government regulations.
8. Upon request by Discloser, Recipient will discontinue using and return all Confidential Information and copies of Confidential Information within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request, except that Recipient shall have the right to retain one copy of such Confidential Information in its legal archives for the purpose of determining its legal obligations hereunder.
9. A Recipient of tangible products or materials constituting Confidential Information agrees not to analyze or have a third party analyze any such tangible products or materials without prior written permission of Discloser.
10. Any notices required to be given or which shall be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered by first-class mail, facsimile transmission, or email addressed to the parties as follows:
