

Diana Jones Nogay, PhD, is a Senior Academic Advisor I in the STEM advising office. Dr. Nogay received her Doctor of Philosophy Degree in English, with concentrations in Literary and Cultural Studies and Rhetoric, Writing, and Discourse Studies, from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA. She received a Master of Arts degree in English and a Bachelor of Science in Applied Science degree in Computer Information Systems, both from YSU. Her scholarly interests include the study of ethics, rhetoric, and racial oratory.

Dr. Nogay is a firm proponent of academic excellence. She enjoys encouraging students to be better than they believe they can be.

Dr. Nogay has teaching experience including ENGL 1550 and ENGL 1551 at YSU. She also has taught technical communication courses at the University of North Texas. She has taught technical writing and business communication classes at the former Pennsylvania State University Shenango and Eastern Gateway Community College campuses.

Dr. Nogay enjoys road cycling, watching old Westerns, and spending time with her Chesapeake Bay retrievers, Robbie and Rosie.