Initial submission form
You can return to the previous page by clicking SUBMISSION DETAILS

Confirm you have read the information and are ready to begin your submission by checking the radio button – yes

The section Getting Started is completed, when the status bar underneath the section turns green, a green check mark shows to its right, and the next section (Study Information) appears
This submission form will prompt you for information. Depending on the answers you provide, six to ten sections will appear in the Sections menu on the left.

The section you are currently working on appears in green text.

A red asterisk (*) next to a question indicates a required question. If not all required questions are answered, the status bar will be incomplete and there will be no green check mark to its right. If sections are incomplete you will not be able to submit your study.

Your study can be saved at all times by clicking \[\text{Save}\] in the upper right.

A section with unsaved changes has a red asterisk (*) next to the section name.

Use \[<\rightarrow\rightarrow\] buttons to navigate to the previous or next sections or click the section name in the Sections menu.
