Definitions

NOTE: The campus based/online term and the high school-based term have different dates. Please refer to the proper column for that term.

First Day of term:
Date the term begins.

Last Day to Add:
Last day to add a course to the students’ schedule.
- The last day to add varies depending on what part-of-term the course is scheduled for. A term specific calendar is emailed to coordinators and students at the start of each term.
- Campus/online students add the course through their portal.
- High school-based courses require a change of registration form.

Last Day to Withdraw with No Charge:
Also known as the 100% refund date of the term, this is the last day to drop a course from the student’s schedule without being charged tuition.
- The 100% refund date varies depending on what part of term the course is scheduled for. A term specific calendar is emailed to coordinators and students at the start of each term.

Campus/online students drop the course through their portal. Books must be returned or the school will be charged.
- High school-based courses require a change of registration form.

Last Day to Withdraw with a W:
Students can withdraw from a course and receive a W on their transcript.
- The last day to withdraw with a W varies depending on what part-of-term the course is scheduled for. A term specific calendar is emailed to coordinators and students at the start of each term.
- Campus/online students drop the course through their portal. Books must be returned or the school will be charged.
- High school-based courses require a change of registration form.
- The high school may seek reimbursement from the student for tuition and books paid on their behalf.

End of Term:
Last day of the semester.
