

Hello fellow Educator!

My name is Jessie and I am a professor at YSU. I invite you to leave the lesson planning to us for Friday March 31st and bring your students on campus to the Williamson College of Business Administration for an opportunity to explore an awesome career with your students that can provide a rewarding future!

By 2024 there will be an estimated 140,000 new accounting jobs in the U.S. With starting salaries on par with other STEM fields, an accounting degree can pay big dividends on a college investment. Join us at a High School Accounting Career Day where students will learn what it takes to major in accounting and meet CPAs who are building cool and lucrative careers.
