

Kathryn Kimes, originally from Pittsburgh, PA, is a Music Education Major graduating with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education. Her primary instrument is saxophone, which she has studied under Dr. James Umble over the past four years, but she also enjoys playing flute, clarinet, and piano. Throughout her time at YSU, Kathryn has been involved in many different music ensembles and student organizations. She has played in the Jazz Ensemble, Wind Ensemble, Voices of YSU, and Saxophone Quartets. Also, she has been a member of the YSU Saxophone Society, YSU Jazz Society, and YSU Catholic Student Association. She held officer positions in each of these student organizations during various semesters throughout her time at YSU. Kathryn is also a member of the YSU Honors College and has enjoyed participating in many volunteer opportunities through the Honors College. In addition, Kathryn was a peer tutor at the Resch Academic Success Center where she tutored students in various levels of Music Theory and Piano Skills classes. After graduation, Kathryn looks forward to her career as a Music Educator, teaching future generations the joy that comes from making music.
