Crime Victimization

Recognize:
- Crying and/or running out of the classroom when sexual violence, domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse is the topic
- Visible bruise on face, throat, arms or legs
- Change in demeanor
- Appears to be afraid of another student in the same class

Respond:
- Listen to and believe what the student tells you
- Do not ask for details of what happened
- Do not blame the student
- Do not pressure the student to report the crime
- Do not report the crime or take any action without the student’s permission; Victim Advocacy can assist the student to report if that is what the student wants to do

What is the YSU CARE Team?
The CARE (Concern-Assessment-Referral-Education) Team is composed of campus personnel committed to a proactive, collaborative and planned approach to managing threatening, disruptive, disturbing or other problematic behaviors at Youngstown State University.
The CARE Team accepts referrals from students, their families, faculty, staff, and the surrounding community with the goal of providing outreach, guidance, and assistance to students dealing with a variety of issues.

Concerned about a student? Use the “Refer a Person of Concern Form”
