For Immediate Release:

Fall Graduating BFA Exhibition

November 16 – December 7, 2018

Opening Reception: Friday, November 16, 5-7pm

The John J McDonough Museum of Art, on the campus of Youngstown State University will open the Fall Graduating BFA Exhibition, a collaboration with the Department of Art at YSU. The show features work by students achieving completion of the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree. Also in the galleries will be the MFA Student Exhibition. An opening reception for the shows will be held on Friday evening, November 16, from 5 to 7pm. They will remain on view in the McDonough galleries through December 7.

Students in the Department of Art work closely with nationally and internationally known faculty engaged in a broad range of art and design practices. Immersed in the quest for knowledge and creative self-realization, students embrace the advantages of professional studio and design programs. The Fall Graduating BFA Exhibition is the opportunity for students to share the original and innovative discoveries they have made in their artistic journeys communicating to the public their creative expressions of human experience.

The Fall Graduating BFA Exhibition celebrates the work of ten students in the areas of digital media, graphic + interactive design and interdisciplinary studio. Students participating in this exhibition are Ryan Ferrebee, Laura Garvin, Ellen Harrison, Kayla Hay, Kyler Lum, Rachel Marchese, Vincent Matthews, Kaitlin Moran, Adam Nye and Torri Session.
