The 84th Annual Juried Student Art & Design Exhibition sponsored by the Student Art Association features works by students enrolled in the Department of Art at Youngstown State University. The exhibition opens on March 27 and continues through April 10 at the John J McDonough Museum of Art. Artists will be honored at a reception and awards ceremony on Friday, March 27 from 5-7 pm.

Awards presented at 6 pm during the opening reception range from cash awards to gift certificates. Local businesses and individuals have generously supported this annual exhibition. Award categories include, ceramics, photography, painting, drawing, sculpture, digital media, and graphic and interactive design. Don't miss this opportunity to witness the strength, breadth and diversity of YSU's Department of Art. The reception and awards ceremony are free and open to the public.

We are honored to have Anderson Turner as the juror for the exhibition. He received a BFA in sculpture from the University of Arizona and went on to earn an MFA in ceramic art from Kent State University (Ohio). He has served as a technical editor for the American Ceramic Society and the Publications Director for the National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts (NCECA). He has edited and compiled numerous books as well scholarly journals about ceramic arts. He continues to make and show artwork and maintains a studio at his home in Akron, Ohio. He currently serves as the Director of the School of Art Collection & Galleries for the Kent State University School of Art and has been the Art Critic for the Akron Beacon Journal since 2014.

In addition to the Juried Student Exhibition the Museum will be featuring VR projects from students in the Digital Media program in the Department of Art on our Virtual Reality Station.

The McDonough Museum of Art is located on the campus of Youngstown State University.

Parking is available in the M30 deck for a nominal fee.

Hours at the McDonough Museum of Art are Tuesday through Saturday, 11:00 am until 4:00 pm.

The Museum is open to the public and admission is free.
